Here's how this works. This is a fundraiser. I'm currently a student at Paul mitchell in slidell. I have a set amount of each of these bundles that I need to sell out ASAP! you place your order with me. I need your name your email address and a way to reach you once your products come in. Once my sales sheet is filled (35 slots left open right now) I'll turn it in to the school and they will email you a paypal invoice (that way your information is secure and your purchase is guaranteed)

Think about Christmas yall these would be a perfect gift for anyone and your getting them for the stylist price. About 30% off retail. Why not do your shopping early and help out a great cause at the same time. I can ship anywhere within the us completely free so you can have them sent directly to the person you're buying for. I'll even gift wrap at no charge :) send me a message with your order before I sell out

What bundles do I have?

Color protect reconstructive treatment

Quick slip (heat protection and fast drying serum)
